ALDOUS
HUXLEY, “ENDS
AND MEANS”
(1937)

“For myself, as no doubt for most of my friends, the philosophy of meaninglessness was essentially an instrument of liberation from a certain system of morality. We objected to the morality because it interfered with our sexual freedom”

ABRAHAM PIPER (2008)

“At first I pretended that my reasoning was high-minded and philosophical. But really I just wanted to drink gallons of cheap sangria and sleep around.”

PCA STUDY COMMITTEE

“Arguably, Christians cannot make a plausible case for the Biblical sex ethic because in many ways we have adapted too much to—or even adopted—the contemporary views of identity and freedom in the way we preach and do ministry.”

PCA STUDY COMMITTEE

“We discern two overarching concerns – concerns which may be expressed as two important tasks for the Church in our time....The two tasks could be called the ‘pastoral task’ and the ‘apologetic task.’...Because both of these tasks...are required, we should give each of them strong attention.”

“The task of apologetics, of defending the truth of Christianity, has at least three main aims...First, apologetics is to provide an answer to the critics of the Christian faith, to those who seek to undermine the rational basis for Christianity or who critique it from the standpoint of another philosophy or religion...The second major aim of apologetics is to tear down the intellectual idols of our culture...The third, and what I believe is the most valuable, aim of apologetics is to encourage the saints, to shore up the church

Marriage Has Become a Trophy

A wedding is no longer the first step into adulthood that it once was, but, often, the last.

By Andrew Cherlin

MARRIAGE MARKETS AND SEXUAL ECONOMICS

SO WHAT?

---

- Loneliness epidemic
- Declining Female Happiness
- Religious disengagement
- Failure of discipleship

SO WHAT?

- Likelihood of marriage is strongly correlated with economic status
- A cause of economic and political polarization:
  - Strong connection between sexual and political liberalism
  - Through marriage, the rich and educated succeed
  - Without marriage, the poor stay poor
- Lack of marriage contributes to social disruption
- Health of the Church is highly interwoven with the health of marriages

SO WHAT?

“Giving young men easy access to abundant sexual satisfaction deprives society of one of its ways to motivate them to contribute valuable achievements to the culture.”

-Baumeister, 2012

“When people decide that historically normative Christianity is wrong about sex, they typically don’t find a church that endorses their liberal views. They quit going to church altogether.”

-Rod Dreher, “Sex after Christianity”, 2013

SHOULD WE DO ANYTHING? CAN WE DO ANYTHING?

---

- Tell stories
- Create marriage-friendly subcultures
- Make the home a haven (in a heartless world)
- Effectively prepare people for marriage
- Help others navigate challenging marriages
- Actively resist the prevailing cultural narrative

PCA STUDY COMMITTEE

“Christians cannot speak to the world about sex in a compelling way if we merely answer the story with a list of moral imperatives, however Biblical.”

THE EFFECTIVE APOLOGIST:

- Be Courageous yet humble, firm but gentle
- Refrain from judgmentalism
- Emphasize compassion over control
- Work in and through the local church
- Use the gifts you have been given
- Use your platform
